

National Aeronautics and Space Administration

METHANE

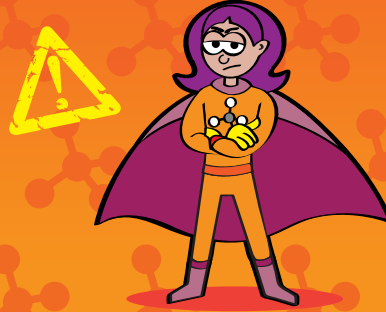

Visit climatekids.nasa.gov

Methane, made of carbon and hydrogen, is a normal gas released from wetlands, growing rice, raising cattle, using natural gas, and mining coal.

METHANE

It traps a lot of heat. Scientists consider it the second most important contributor to human-caused global warming of all the greenhouse gases.

